LAST evening the REPUBLICAN received a copy of the handsomely printed New Year's address issued by the carriers of the Bloomington daily Pantograph and printed in that office. It is novel in its general make-up and contains poems on "The Carrier's Address," the "Carrier's Cry," and "Death of the Old Year." The boys doubtless made a "big catch" out of it, and we hope they did.

A DANDY exchange remarks that the depression prevails in railroad circles that the rumored consolidation or leasing of the Wabash and Missouri Pacific railroad systems practically to each other is to be carried out. The subject is made the more interesting from the fact that an official of the Wabash states that an outlet for this system to the eastern seaboard has become a necessity, and he intimates that a big scheme is afoot, with abundance of capital behind it, to lift the Wabash, during the coming year, to a level among the great roads of the country.

YOUNG BROS. & MARIS.

Wholesale Grocers, Masonic Building—A New Firm.
This forenoon a reporter called upon Young Bros. & Maris, wholesale grocers, who have established themselves in a fine suite of rooms in Masonic Block, specially arranged for the important business in which they have engaged. The firm has leased the basement, the first floor and second floor of the building. Each room is 40 by 87 feet in size, and the ceilings are lofty. An improved elevator and substantial stairways connect with the three floors. The sample room and offices are located in the front part of the south half of the first floor, occupying a space 20 by 42 feet in size. Space has been set apart for a splendid display of goods carried by the firm.

The senior member of the firm, Mr. F. M. Young, will leave for New York on Sunday night to purchase a full stock of groceries exclusively for the wholesale trade in this and adjoining states. The firm will carry a stock valued at about $35,000 to $40,000, and will have it ready for business about February 1st.
Mr. John M. Maris, of Quincy, who will remove to Decatur with his family, has purchased an interest in the business. He has been traveling for several years for Harmon, Merriman & Co., Chicago, wholesale grocers. He will be the principal traveling salesman for Young Bros. & Maris.
All parties indebted to the late retail firm of Young Bros., retail grocers, are requested to call at the office in Masonic Block and settle up without further delay.

A serious collision occurred on the Chicago division of the Wabash road early this morning at a point near Chicago. The colliding trains were a freight and No. 16, the regular Chicago express and passenger train, which passed through Decatur at 12:15 last night. The passenger engine was thrown from the track and badly damaged. Nobody killed. The injured were Mr. John Swigert, the engineer of the passenger locomotive, who in jumping braked his hips seriously, and the roadmaster of the Chicago division, Mr. Sam Sweeney, who was thrown off the train. He fell against a stone, which cut a deep gash in his face. He is a man weighing 250 pounds and was formerly city clerk of Springfield. The accident was caused by a mistake of a member of the freight train crew in giving a signal to the passenger train. Mr. Swigert returned to Decatur this morning, and is nursing his bruises in his room at Ald. Shoemaker's residence.

MURKED AT MID-LAY.
At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Leech, corner of Webster and Clay streets, on January 2, 1883, at 1 o'clock p. m., by Rev. H. W. Trueblood, Rev. David O. Giffen, of Casser Station, and Miss Nannie L. Leech, of Decatur.
The bride was attired in a handsome navy blue silk. The groom is a preacher of the U. B. denomination, of this county. The couple left yesterday for a short bridal tour west and will return within a week or ten days.

The couple received the following presents: Lamp, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kearney; celery glass and glass pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Logan, Blue Mound; glass tea set, Miss Lizzie Walser; glass fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. Leffingwell; glass cream pitcher, Miss Mary Peake; silver cream spoon, Miss Nannie Odor; half dozen silver spoons, Mrs. J. G. Cloyd; bread plate and half dozen glass sauce dishes, Sanford and Maud Leffingwell; pair towels, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kepley; half dozen napkins, Miss Fannie Kopley; bed spread, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Eichinger, Long Creek; napkins, Lat. Logan; lace handkerchief, Miss Sallie Houston; celery glass, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClelland; set silver spoons, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Allison; pair vases, Mrs. Jake Shears; napkins, Miss Tillie Lovvy, Elvin, Ill.; stand cover, Mrs. Kate Holly; silver casket, Miss Mattie Mayne and Mollie Leech; half dozen handkerchiefs, Edward Leech; glass pitcher, Mrs. Leech; bonnet, Miss Annie Cloyd; $5 cash, Arist Leech; $2 cash, Wm. Odor; handsome cake, Mrs. Weitzel.

Regrets were received from Dr. and Mrs. John A. Dawson, of Casser, and others.
There were about fifty guests present, who were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Leech, parents of the bride.
A bountiful wedding repast, prepared under the direction of the bride's mother, was served during the afternoon.

THE astronomer and night watchman at D. S. Shellabarger & Co.'s mills, says he saw a dazzling meteor in the southern sky this morning at four o'clock. Says it was a ball of fire as large as "a baby's head," and passed quickly from east to west.

THE following is the programme suggested by the Evangelical Alliance for the week of prayer, commencing January 7, 1883:
Sunday, January 7—Sermons.
Monday—Praise and Thanksgiving.
Tuesday—Humiliation and Confession.
Wednesday—Prayer for Families.
Thursday—Prayer for the Church Universal.
Friday—Prayer for the Nations.
Saturday—Prayer for Missions.
Sunday—Sermons.

THAT $250,000,000 FORTUNE.
We learn that the heirs of the Joseph Hedges estate have employed the Hon. Logan, of Cincinnati, to go to England to act as their attorney in the English courts. The Danville News speaks of Rev. Lucas as one of the heirs. There are, upon investigation, found to be about one thousand heirs of the generation that now lay claim to this large estate. There are some living in almost every state in the Union. The names of those living in Illinois are as follows: Jonah Hedges, of Quincy; Mrs. Elizabeth Cash, of McLean county; Mr. Caleb Hedges, of Argenta, father of Clark and Walter Hedges; Mrs. Jesse Hart, mother of James and Sunderland Hart, of this city; and Mrs. Sarah Gregory, mother of Miss Mary Gregory, also of this city. The Decatur heirs do not seem very enthusiastic over the matter, which state of mind will enable them to bear the disappointment of failure with little inconvenience. If these heirs succeed, as appearances indicate, the old lion of England will rouse and bristle his mane to have to shell out two hundred and fifty millions. We wish them success.

He took breakfast at the Palmer House restaurant, and not caring to be bothered with the bill of fare presented him, his order was: "Bring me a breakfast." It came in great variety. The bill was $1.85.
G. W. Dubois, who years ago resided in this vicinity, now lives in Tombstone, Arizona Territory. He was met at that place recently by H. Wright, of Somonauk, Ill. Dubois said he had not been in Decatur for so many years that he had entirely lost track of things hereabouts. He has subscribed for the weekly REPUBLICAN.

Bloomington Leader: Dr. Schroeder, the "People's Friend," has issued a challenge to Col. Bradshaw and Rev. C. Compton Burnett, to debate against both of them—not on the question "Do we need prohibition?" but "Can we have prohibition?" He is a socialist and communist, but don't take any stock in Horst Mund, whom he considers crazy. The Doctor paid us a New Year's call to-day, and flashed four roams of manuscript upon us dating back 2,000 years before Christ, in which he knocks the prohibition question silly.

THE members of the M. E. church at Mattoon called at the parsonage on Monday evening, and as a token of their respect for Rev. J. H. Noble and wife, presented him with a $100 bill.
